

Tango's story begins across the Atlantic Ocean, in the United States of America, in New York City!

In the middle of the city is the greatest park in all the world - Central Park - where our story will begin!

In the middle of Central Park, is Central Park Zoo. Families from across the world come to visit - and inside the Zoo there are lots of other families! There are Sea-lion sisters and Polar-bear brothers and Monkey Mommies too. Every type of family was different, that's what made Central Park Zoo so special.

Now our story begins in the Penguin House - there are lots and lots of penguin families all living together, there are King Penguins and Gentoo Penguins and just like Tango, there are Chin-strap Penguins. Our story begins with two Chinstrap Penguins - one called Roy and one called Silo....
